

response explore measures schemes focus implications development Bridging Climate
Article
Environment
buildings
support
analysis
evaluation
Demand
market
poverty
EED
Cities
tools
lessons input
Local
Tokyo
success
learn results
scenarios
innovation
taxation indicators
property
study perspective
transition promoting business resources global trends
future
targets
estimate insufficiently International
countries behavioral
data gap
CNG costs
EPBD
Industry

Foto: Hamarsland, NVE

Panel 3- Contribution to energy sufficiency

- There is no easy way to sufficiency
- Modelling sufficiency shows us possible pathways
- RECOGNIZE, ACCEPT and ADDRESS energy poverty!
- Evaluation necessary for better designing for sufficiency
- Traditional measures good – need also new measures
- Must build acceptance and legitimacy
- LEARN explain and COMMUNICATE it to your father & child

Foto: Hamarsland, NVE